More important now to get a return on investment for a new initiative.

Some units are inherently creative, others have more regulations.

Critical that we innovate to stay relevant, orgs that don't are eroding.

Need to sustain collaboration and innovation in our culture.

Employee freedom is important, in how they work and in what they work on.

Pockets of great innovation success are a part of our history and story.

Some people & units are collaborative, others are more isolated

Innovation is a new thing...not many know the process.

Colleges & companies are similar & different, maybe we can blend the best.
